Ashland to increase prices on personal and home care products

WILMINGTON, Delaware – Ashland Global Holdings Inc. (NYSE: ASH) will increase prices 6 percent to 10 percent for its personal and home care products effective October 5, 2016, or as contracts allow.

The price adjustment is necessitated due to a general increase in costs. This will enable Ashland to continue to provide its customers with the premium level services that they currently receive meeting the highest levels of technical support, regulatory compliance, quality, supply, service, safety and value.
